The Long Poem: Innovative Genre or Contradiction in Terms

Bibliography compiled by
Wolfram R. Keller

This bibliography is not meant to be all-inclusive but represent a selection of articles and monographs which students might find of interest for their seminar presentations or term papers. Please keep in mind that not all of the listed items are available at the University of Marburg. In order to avoid unnecessary expenses, however, it is worth checking the seminar folder in the library as well; some of the material might already be on inter-library loan.
